Title	Description
Davy Crockett and the River Pirates	DATE - December 14, 1955
	DIRECTOR - Norman Foster
	SUMMARY - Returning once again to Tennessee, Davy and Russel encounter a band of pirates terrorizing the Ohio River while posing as Indians. This time, they enlist Mike Fink and his crew as allies to track down the despicable rouges.
	BEHIND THE SCENES - The final Davy Crockett installment, fictionally inspired by The Crockett Almanac containing Exploits of Davy Crockett on The Western Rivers or How He & Mike Fink Cleaned Out The Pirates At Cave-In-Rock . Does banjo-plucking Colonel Pluck sound familiar? The same actor, Walter Catlett, provided the voice of J. Worthington Foulfellow in Pinocchio (1940). This episode is the second of two edited together to create the film Davy Crockett and the River Pirates , released July 18, 1956.
	IMAGE TYPE - Color. Exceptions include black & white footage for the Disneyland show introduction, closing preview, and credits.
	PREFACE - Leonard Maltin discusses Mike Fink's return as Davy's ally in the final installment of the second series, in addition to spotlighting Director Norman Foster.
	NEXT WEEK ON DISNEYLAND - "Dumbo" (December 21, 1955) – This tale from Fantasyland features Disney's 4th animated classic, Dumbo (1941).
	VOICEOVER PROMO - The Littlest Outlaw (1955)
